Potential Opportunity Analysis Example

Action Background

We are the premier emergency response contractor in the state, providing award-winning emergency response and environmental remediation services for governmental agencies and the commercial sector. We operate 24/7, 365 days of the year and in the past have completed as many as 500 projects each year in our area and adjoining states. We pride ourselves on being able to provide the best customer service in the industry.

The weak economy has meant that customers keep negotiating for the best possible prices, lengthening the sales cycle and slowing down receivables. This is forcing us to find creative ways to contain costs and build for the future. It is our ambition to grow from a mid-sized company to a regional and even country-wide contractor that companies think of first when they are faced with environmental clean-up challenges.

We are currently examining several opportunities to shorten the sales cycle; streamline processes; acquire or refurbish our fleet of environmental, construction, and industrial equipment; increase our customer base; and enhance the skill set of our employees.

Our leadership team wants us to make sure that we have a highly skilled, experienced, stable workforce; that we are in a position to complete our projects on or before time; that we are able to price competitively; and that we use the highest quality equipment, tools, materials, and technologies. In short, to renew our commitment to provide the very best solutions to the industries we serve.

A team has been formed to conduct a Potential Opportunity Analysis to position us for an economic recovery.
Potential Opportunity Analysis

Identify Potential Opportunities

State the action

- What decision, action, plan, or end result do we need to leverage?
- What decision, action, plan, or end result might contain unexpected benefit?

Write a short, clear statement. Include action, end result, and modifiers. Time frame and cost are optional.

Position the company to take advantage of the upcoming economic recovery.

List potential opportunities

- When we take this action, what could go better than expected?
- What benefit(s) could this action cause?
- Visualize what opportunities could occur while taking the action

Use knowledge and experience OR...

- Which should we work on first? Mark with *.
- Which is likely to offer the greatest benefit?

...Use assess the benefit to set priority

- How likely is this potential opportunity? (probability)
- How beneficial is it likely to be? (benefit)

Record (P) and (B) data. Rate H/M/L. Work on highest combinations first.

- Explain how each cause could create the potential opportunity

Take Promoting Actions

Take actions to encourage likely causes

- What can we do to promote or increase the chances of this likely cause?
- How can we ensure this likely cause will create the potential opportunity?
- List many promoting actions
- Assign responsibility, resources, and time frame for each

Potential Opportunity Analysis

Prepare Capitalizing Actions and Triggers

Prepare actions to enhance likely impact

- What actions will we take if the potential opportunity happens?
- What actions will maximize the benefit if this happens?
- What can we do to respond as quickly, cheaply, and effectively as possible?

- Brainstorm a list of capitalizing actions
- Involve others who will complete or judge the action or plan
- Prepare capitalizing actions in advance
- Assign responsibility, resources, and time frame for each

Set triggers for capitalizing actions

- How will we know the potential opportunity has occurred?
- What will cause the capitalizing action to start?
- Set a trigger for each capitalizing action
  - One trigger can initiate more than one capitalizing action
  - Identify the system or person that will initiate the capitalizing action
  - Automatic triggers are preferable—they do not require judgment
  - Use manual triggers when there is a choice of capitalizing actions or when the need for action has to be assessed
