

Partnering with Kepner-Tregoe

KEPNER® TREGOE

Offer the gold-standard in critical thinking skills training.

Advances in technology and globalization are transforming America's job landscape. To ensure a place in a more competitive workforce, workers must develop new skills. This means now more than ever, local businesses and individuals will turn to community colleges for their professional development needs.

Will you meet their expectations? By partnering with Kepner-Tregoe to offer workforce development training, you may even surpass them.

Who is Kepner-Tregoe?

Kepner-Tregoe (KT) is the international leader in developing the critical thinking skills of people. Founded over forty-five years ago, KT pioneered problem-solving and decision-making processes that enable people to turn business problems into impressive bottom-line results. Our powerful, proven set of processes for problem-solving, decision-making, and managing projects are fundamental to the way business is done in many major organizations. We offer management consulting and training services in 44 countries and 14 languages.

What will you gain by partnering with KT?

By adding KT as an education partner, you will:

- Increase your revenue stream by expanding your pool of training offerings.
- Provide increased value to your community by offering best-in-class problem-solving, decision-making, and project management training.
- Return the business results that your customers strive to achieve.

How will KT work with you?

Kepner-Tregoe equips you with everything you need to provide our training.

- Trained instructors. We will identify and prepare candidates, observe each instructor's first teach, and provide ongoing instructional support.
- Flexible training options. To maximize your resources and customer satisfaction, we can bring our training offerings to your facility, your customer's facility, or both, using our instructors or yours.
- Marketing support. We will provide you with marketing materials, assist you with business development efforts, and help you host events.
- Quality Assurance. We will conduct regular reviews to ensure that you and your customers are satisfied with our support and services.

What college and other credits are available?

Kepner-Tregoe training has been recognized by the American Council on Education, Project Management Institute, and National Association of State Boards of Accountancy. Workshop participants are recommended for college credit, Professional Development Units (PDU), Continuing Education Units (CEU), and Continuing Professional Education Units (CPE). Contact us for complete credit information.

How can you get started?

Kepner-Tregoe believes that community colleges can equip workers with the skills they need to succeed in an evolving economy. Our education partnerships are able to provide the training that local businesses and individuals need to boost creativity, productivity, and efficiency. We want community colleges to be the place people turn to for their professional development needs.
